5.2 The Muwafaq Foundation in Somalia

The office in Somalia was run from Addis Ababa in Ethiopia. The Muwafaq Foundation was never officially registered. Nevertheless it operated in Somalia from December 1992. The Regional Director was a Somali called Sohaib Abdul Lateef Sheikh BASHIR, who had lived in Saudi Arabia for many years. The Muwafaq carried out various aid projects in various regions in Somalia. At the end of 1996 the charity was closed and all the operations were assigned to the "Zam Zam Foundation" in Somalia.

5.3 The Muwafaq Foundation in Uganda

The Foundation was also active in Uganda. No details about this location are available however.

See YAK to OFAC, index to statement of Yassin Abdullah KADI, page 16

5.4 Other Muwafaq Foundation locations in Africa, which have been mentioned in the press

The Muwafaq Foundation reportedly never operated in Eritrea, Chad or Tanzania. Although Muwafaq applied for approval from the authorities in Kenya, in the end the Foundation never worked in Kenya either. Nevertheless occasional reports can be read in the international press about Muwafaq Foundations in these countries.

6. The Muwafaq Foundation in Pakistan, responsible for Asia

6.1 The Regional Director Amir MEHDI

The Regional Director of the Muwafaq Foundation in Pakistan was Mr. Amir MEHDI Saleh, a Pakistani national. His brother, Saleh Hassan MEHDI, who had once lived in Jeddah / SA and was a lecturer at King Abdul Aziz University, had recommended Amir to Mr. KADI. Amir MEHDI had excellent local knowledge, because he had worked as a teacher in Peshawar and Islamabad. This was why he was appointed by Mr. KADI.

See Yassin Abdullah KADI and OFAC, index to statement, page 27

Amir MEHDI is suspected to be a leading member of the Pakistani terrorist organisation Harkatul Mujahideen. On 03/10/2001 this organisation was placed on the Taliban and Al-Qaeda list compiled under UN Resolution 1267. Harkatul Mujahideen has worked very closely with Osama BIN LADEN's Al-Qaeda in the past and according to various sources also used the Al-Qaeda training camps in Afghanistan. Yassin Abdullah KADI worked on a personal level with Mr. Amir MEHDI. In the photo-dossier you will find Mr. KADI, Mr. JULAIDAN and Mr. MEHDI pictured at a meeting together. John Walker Lindh, the American Taliban, after his time at ZINDANI's Al-Eman University in the Yemen also went first to a Harkatul Mujahideen training camp in Pakistan, before joining the Taliban and Al-Qaeda in Afghanistan.
